Highland Township
Tombstone Inscriptions

Forward

Over the years, many members, some now deceased, have worked on reading the tombstones in all the cemeteries in the twelve townships in Defiance County.

We give our heartfelt thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bowersox, Pat Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Colwell, Gladys Donson, Audrey Fahrer, Paul Gearing, Jean Greutman, Rae Harp, Dan Hasch, Diane E. Hill, Ila and Richard Lafountain, Phyllis Leech, Lawrence and Pat Little, Caroline Longardner, Erma and Harold Rulman, Jeanne Scheirer, Jan and Kerry Sharp, Ilene and Wesley Spacht, Inga Strait, Carrie Walters, Katie Warncke, and Lucy Weaver.

We especially thank Bill Moore who tirelessly did a second reading of all the cemeteries beginning in the mid-1990's. The Highland Township cemeteries were last read in 2000 – 2001 by Bill Moore, Rhonda Casler, and Jeananne Steingass. If any names of those who assisted in this project have been omitted, we sincerely apologize and thank all those who helped in any way.

Our best efforts were given in reading all tombstones correctly; however, sometimes wear on the stone made it difficult to read all the lettering and numbers. If mistakes exist in our readings, we again apologize. Dates have been standardized to read in Month, Day, Year order and ages read in years (y) – month (m) – days (d.) Stones that were present at an earlier reading, but now are gone are indicated by brackets [ ] and the inscription is in italics.

An index of surnames for all the Highland Township cemeteries is at the back of the book.

Prior to each cemetery's inscriptions, a map may be found showing the cemetery's location.

AYERSVILLE CEMETERY

The Ayersville Cemetery is located in Section 4 of Highland Township at the intersection of Fruit Ridge Road and Shindler Road. It has a driveway at the south edge, separating the cemetery into two sections. The south side is the smaller section. All rows run north to south. It is an old cemetery and has many stones that are difficult to read and some stones are totally illegible. Diane Hill read this cemetery in 1981 and Rhonda Casler, Bill Moore and Jeananne Steingass reread it in September 2001.

HOELTZEL CEMETERY

Hoeltzel Cemetery is located 1500 feet east of the corner of Porter Road. Porter Road is about four miles south of Defiance off State Route 15. No road exists back to this cemetery.

The cemetery has been neglected for many years and is almost completely overgrown with bushes, small trees and plants. There many be other burials here, but with the overgrowth, it was impossible to tell.

The cemetery was read by Audrey Fahrer on May 25, 1981 and checked again by Bill Moore on September 18, 2001. Audrey Fahrer noted that in 1981 there was a footstone with no discernable lettering just to the left of Daniel Gilt's stone.
